The Vice President of the United States
Room 5113, New Senate Office Building
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Vice President:

Since Mr. Dulles wrote to you on 24 November concerning [redacted] we have explored the possibilities for his service with us. As you may recall, [redacted] had spent a considerable amount of time in Latin America doing construction work and suggested that he could do an effective job for his country in combating anti-U. S. feeling there.

We have not as yet identified a specific requirement which would take advantage of [redacted] background but have asked our field representative in his area to visit [redacted] and discuss his application further with him.

Thank you again for writing to us about [redacted]. We shall advise you of further developments concerning his application.

Sincerely,

John G. T. Cabell
